

Guest Lecture on “SUSTAINABLE POPULATION GROWTH FOR CHANGING THE WORLD”

On the Occasion of World Population Day

1. Name of the College: Sri Durga Malleswara Siddhartha Mahila Kalasala
2. Organized Department: Economics
3. Title of the programme: “SUSTAINABLE POPULATION GROWTH FOR CHANGING THE WORLD”
4. Guest Lecture “Date of the programme: 11-07-2026
5. Resource person of the Programme: Dr.Sk.Karimulla, Head Department of Economics, Lakireddy Hanimireddy Government Degree College, Mylavaram.
6. Brief report of Program:

The Department of Economics, organized a guest lecture on “Sustainable Population Growth for a Changing World” which was delivered by Dr. Sk. Karimulla, Head, Department of Economics, Lakireddy Hanimireddy Government Degree College, Mylavaram, the Guest lecture aims to provide students with insights into global population trends, demographic challenges, and strategies for achieving sustainable growth with insights into global population trends, demographic challenges, and strategies for achieving sustainable growth.

The session emphasized the concept of sustainable population growth, highlighting the need to balance population expansion with the availability of resources, environmental protection, and economic development. The speaker elaborated on key issues such as population explosion, demographic transition, resource utilization, and the importance of human capital development.

Special focus was given to the role of education, healthcare, women empowerment, and government policies in achieving sustainable population levels. Students gained valuable insights into global and national population trends, challenges of urbanization, and the importance of responsible citizenship in maintaining ecological balance.

