

On March 16, 2026, the Department of Political Science students and staff conducted a field visit to the historic 'KONDAVEEDU FORT' in Andhra Pradesh. This visit likely focused on studying the fort's medieval governance structures, Reddy dynasty administration, and regional heritage management.

It serves as a key site for understanding regional history, medieval architecture, and cultural ties.

