

DEPARTMENT OF BOTANY

Name of the Event: Vinayaka pathri distribution

Date : 12-09-2026

The programme was organized to create awareness among students about the different plant species are offered to lord Ganesha . An exhibition of various plant leaves, flowers, and their botanical names was arranged to help students understand plant diversity, identification, traditional uses, and cultural importance.

Students actively participated in the exhibition and learned about several plants, the activity effectively connected traditional practices with botanical knowledge and promoted environmental awareness.

The programme emphasized the messages of learning plant diversity, promoting a green environment, contributing to a sustainable future, and protecting nature. It was a meaningful educational activity that encouraged students to appreciate and conserve plant resources.

I Botany and II Botany students collecting tulasi, vavili and pomogranite leaves from the plants

